Remembering The Past!
From The 125th Anniversary Committee.

In 1992, Immanuel observed its 100th anniversary with a year long celebration which included: guest speakers; anniversary dinner; preparation of a time capsule; a picnic; and a book written about the history of the first 100 years of Immanuel.

In addition to all of these festivities, Immanuel welcomed a new pastor. Reverend Larry W. Rockemann came to Bristol in August of 1992 with his wife Jean, their children Leah and Joel, and their dog Brandy.

Pastor Rockemann came to Bristol from Mount Calvary Lutheran Church, Peoria, Illinois where he had served for five years. He was installed on August 16, 1992 as Senior Pastor of Immanuel and served in that capacity until 1998.
